990 Review Process

The 990 is made available electronically to all Fordham Institute trustees prior to the filing deadline. It is also discussed at a meeting of a committee of the board (Audit & Risk Committee, which has purview over all financial and administrative matters). This committee is comprised of three of the eight members of the Fordham Institute Board. The Director of Finance reviews each line of the 990 before its filing. The Fordham Institute Secretary, trustee Thomas Holton, a partner with Porter, Wright, Morris & Arthur (PWMA), reviews the 990 with his colleague at PWMA, tax attorney Edward Segelken. Fordham Institute President, Chester E. Finn, Jr., receives an overview of the filing from the Director of Finance and serves as a member of the Audit & Risk Committee.

Process for Determining Compensation

The compensation of the President is determined by the Board, and it has based its determination on an analysis of comparable positions at similar organizations. This process for the CEO was last undertaken in December of 2003 by the Board's Administration and Finance Committee (now known as the Audit and Risk Committee). The salary of the President has remained unchanged since that time. An updated review of salaries at comparable organizations was done at the full board's annual meeting in October, 2010. Compensation for the two Vice Presidents (Mike Petrilli and Terry Ryan) is determined by the President, based on a thorough annual review process conducted in November and December of each year (with mid-year and quarterly components as well). A comparable-salary analysis for the two vice presidents was last reviewed by the President in 2008.
